AN ATTRACTIVE wedding was solemnized today, when Miss Adelaida Wilberforce Collins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence W. Collins, of 143 Highland avenue, Chestnut Hill, became the bride of Mr. Alfred Miller Watts, son of Mr. Charles Alfred Watts, of 4055 Spruce street. The ceremony was performed in St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Chestnut Hill, at high noon, the Rev. C. George Currie, grandfather of the bridegroom, officiating. Mr. Currie, it will be remembered, was rector at one time of the Church of St. Luke's and the Epiphany.

The bride, who was unattended, was gowned in an attractive frock of white net, the skirt having several tiers embroidered in pink flowers and edged with pipings of blue taffeta. Her hat was of lace, the crown of which was made of fancy blue straw. A wreath of pink flowers and blue streamers of satin ribbon formed the trimming. Instead of a bouquet she carried an ivory white prayer book.

The bridegroom was attended by his father, Mr. Charles Alfred Watts, as best man, and the ushers were Mr. R. Montgomery Haines and Mr. John Rome Battle. There was no reception, and on their return from their wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Watts will be at home during the summer months, at 12 Summit street, Chestnut Hill.

GREEN—EVANS

An attractive wedding will take place tonight when Miss Helen Evans, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Stanley Evans, of the Wyneva apartments, will become the bride of Mr. Francis Knowles Greer. The ceremony will take place in the Methodist Episcopal Church of the Advocate, Wayne avenue and Queen lane, at 7:30 o'clock, the Rev. Gladstone Holm officiating, assisted by the Rev. Charles L. Seasholes. The bride, who will be given in marriage by her father, will wear a gown of white satin and chiffon. The skirt will be made of accordion-pleated chiffon with a pointed tunic of white satin. Chantilly lace will form the trimming for the bodice and the sleeves will be entirely of chiffon. The skirt will be short, but a court train will fall from the shoulders. A tulle veil will have the conventional orange blossoms and she will carry a shower bouquet of white orchids and lilies of the valley.

the valley. Miss Evans will have as matron of honor Miss Franklin L. Wood, who will be gowned in blue faille taffeta trimmed with silver lace and cream net. Her hat will be of cream net and silver lace, and she will carry pink sweet peas. The bridesmaids will be Miss Marian Hill and Miss Elizabeth D. Fite, whose gowns will be of different shades. Miss Hill will wear pink taffeta with a leghorn hat, trimmed with black velvet streamers and pink roses, and will carry yellow daisies and pink sweet peas, while Miss Fite's gown will be of yellow taffeta. She will wear a leghorn hat, trimmed with yellow roses and black velvet streamers. She will also carry yellow daisies and pink sweet peas. There will be two flower girls, Miss Josephine Greer and Miss Elizabeth Greer, who will wear dainty white gowns and pink ribbons, and will carry gilt baskets, filled with sweet peas. Mr. Greer will have as best man his brother, Mr. Benjamin W. Greer, and the ushers will include Mr. Fred Higham, Mr. Francis Riera, Mr. Franklin L. Wood and Mr. Harry Greer. A reception for the two families and about 250 additional guests will take place at the Germantown Cricket Club. Palms and spring flowers will be used in profusion as decorations about the reception rooms. After an extended tour Mr. and Mrs. Greer will reside at the Wyneva Apartments, where they will be at home after June 1.
